

Call to participate in TACSO trainings “How to prepare a project proposal - full application form” in respond to EIDHR 2011 Call for Project Proposals

3 November 2011

The Technical Assistance for Civil Society Organisations (TACSO) project, supporting Kosovo CSOs in applying for EIDHR call for proposals has implemented a series of information sessions throughout Kosovo informing CSOs about the EIDHR open call for proposals, objectives, rules and requirements of the call. In addition TACSO will provide training sessions composed of three consecutive days elaborating in details on the preparation of the full application form in line with call objectives, rules and requirements. Below is the training schedule. The European Commission Liaison Office to Kosovo is seeking project proposals strengthening the role of civil society in promoting human rights and democratic reform, supporting conflict prevention and consolidating political participation and representation in Kosovo.

Training session I (training will be delivered in Albanian language)
“How to prepare a project proposal full application form”	16-19 November	Hotel “Nora”- Klinë/Klina

Training session II (training will be delivered in Albanian language)
How to prepare a project proposal full application form”	23-26 November	Hotel ‘Nora”- Klinë/Klina

Training session III (training will be delivered in Serbian language)
How to prepare a project proposal full application form”	1-3 December 2011	EU Information and Cultural Center Mitrovicë/Mitrovica

To benefit from the TACSO training programme please register your organisation through completing the attached registration form. Please send the registration form by 9th of November 2011, 17:00 to info.ko@taco.org . Selected participants will be required to attend the whole training programme (three full days training). TACSO will cover all the training expenditures.